Terms and conditions 2012

1. Interpretation

The following definitions and rules of interpretation shall apply in these conditions:

"Centre" means The Irish National Sailing School & Club, West Pier, Dun Laoghaire, Co. Dublin.

"Contract" means the contract between the centre and the customer for the provision of services.

"Customer" means any person, company, firm or any other legal entity, including any employees, agents or subcontractors which places an order or purchases a service from the centre.

"Service" means any course, product, service or facility offered by the centre to the customer.

2. Application of Terms

These conditions are the only conditions upon which the centre is prepared to deal with the customer.

3. Booking

The customer may make a booking with the centre by post or telephone. Places cannot be provisionally booked. Once you have decided on your course and its dates, please make the appropriate payment. Bookings cannot be accepted without the appropriate payment. A booking is not definite until confirmed by the centre.

4. Payment

A non-refundable deposit of €100 or 20% of overall course cost, whichever is the lesser, is required for all courses. The balance due on a course must be paid at least one week in advance of its commencement. Payment of full amount of course fee is required where the customer books within two weeks of its commencement. The centre reserves the right to cancel any booking without prior notice if full payment has not been made in accordance with these conditions. Cheques are made payable to The Irish National Sailing School & Club, West Pier, Dun Laoghaire, Co. Dublin. We cannot accept personal cheques from outside of Ireland. We accept the following credit and debit cards: Visa, Mastercard, Laser and Maestro. When paying for a course by credit or debit card the outstanding course fees will automatically be debited from your card not more than one week before course commencement, unless you advise us that payment may be debited at an earlier date.

5. Cancellations

All cancellations made by the customer must be made in writing and submitted via email or post. In the event of a cancellation, the deposit tendered by the customer is forfeited. Customers are advised to insure against and check whether their own personal insurance policy provides cover against certain unavoidable cancellation.

Should a customer wish to reschedule due to personal circumstances, a rescheduling fee of €30 will apply.

The centre reserves the right to cancel any booking at any time without prior notice where we believe on reasonable grounds that this is necessary due to unsuitable conditions.

Cancelling a booking should not be confused with the need to reschedule a sailing lesson due to weather. Where a lesson is rescheduled, this does not count as a cancellation. Non-attendance at a course or leaving during a course will result in the entire fee tendered being forfeited.

6. Safety

Safety is of paramount importance on all of the centre's courses. Watersports activities are by their very nature hazardous and customers and their guardians must accept that there are risks and the inevitable bumps and scrapes which happen during the thrills and spills of fast moving activities. The customer must comply with all safety and general instructions given by the centre and its staff.

7. Health

Customers participating in courses at the centre must expect to be involved in adventurous and strenuous activity. Customers must be in general good health and must satisfy themselves that the activity is within their abilities. The customer must make a true and accurate declaration of their health when booking and must make the centre aware of any medical conditions they have. The centre reserves the right to refuse a booking on medical grounds.

8. Medical Attention

The customer will permit for basic First Aid to be administered by a suitably qualified member of staff where considered necessary or by a qualified medical practitioner. The customer authorises a qualified medical practitioner to provide emergency treatment or medication if necessary.

9. Complaints

If the customer encounters an issue or a problem with regard to the services being provided by the centre, they should notify the Centre Manager immediately in writing. The centre will endeavour to resolve a problem as soon as possible.

10. Unruly Behaviour

Customers are required to have consideration for others at the centre. If, in the centre's reasonable opinion, the customer or any member of their party is behaving or likely to behave in such a way as to cause danger, upset or distress to any third party or damage to property, the centre is entitled without prior notice to expel the customer immediately. No refunds will be made and customers are liable for any damage caused.

11. Intellectual Property

The copyright and all other intellectual property rights in the products and services shown in the centre's brochures, website and other materials shall at all times remain the property of the centre.

12. Photographs

Photographs taken on the centre's courses may appear in our brochures and marketing materials. If a customer does not wish to be photographed this should be raised with the Centre Manager in writing.

13. Data Protection

Personal information requested by the centre at the time of booking or any subsequent information is held in its original form and on computer. The centre is the Data Controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1988 and will process your data in accordance with the act. The centre will not divulge your information onto Third Parties. By providing us with your information to process a booking, you agree that your personal information can be:

14. Circumstances Beyond our Control
The centre shall have no liability to the customer under the contract if it is prevented from or delayed in performing its obligations under the contract or from carrying on its business directly or indirectly by any acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control including (but not limited to) acts of God, war, invasion, rebellion, riot, civil commotion, disorder, malicious damage, fire, flood, epidemic, quarantine restriction, strikes, lock outs or other industrial disputes, failure of a utility service or transport network, compliance with any law or governmental law, rule, regulation or direction, accident, breakdown of plant or machinery, unusually severe weather or default of suppliers or subcontractors.
15. Equipment
The centre reserves the right to provide sailing craft other than those specified at time of booking.
16. Rights of Third Parties
A person who is not a party to this agreement (except where applicable) shall not have any rights under or in connection with it by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
17. Waiver
The centre reserves the right to waive any or all of the conditions.
18. Applicable Law
The contract and any dispute or claim arising out of it or in connection with it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Irish Law. The customer irrevocably agrees that any dispute that arises shall be dealt with under the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of The Republic of Ireland.
19. General
The customer will release the centre, its officers, directors, employees, volunteers, agents and sponsors from any liability no matter how arising with his / her attendance, play and transportation related there.
20. Understanding of Terms and Conditions
The centre's acceptance of any booking will only be done subject to your acceptance of these conditions. Payment of a deposit and / or a consent signature of the customer (parent / guardian if under 18 years) will be regarded as evidence of acceptance of and consent to these conditions.
